

Formally started in 2003 the Research & Resource Centre, provides researchers, educators, professionals, journalists and students with a central library of printed and visual material on the city of Mumbai and its corresponding Metropolitan region. By establishing the following programmes and services within the Resource Centre, UDRI is poised to strengthen the public discussion on our city's future by housing a Principal Archive on Mumbai through Planning Laws, Regulations; Digital resources like photographs, maps and drawings, films documenting various aspects of the city; a newspaper archive on city happenings; books and reports; Urban planning journals and research papers and networks of other resource areas in the city. Besides this through the website the Centre developed various electronic databases to assist concerned citizens, journalists and students to effectively monitor the transformations in the urban environment. Digitization of its database and acquiring of GIS information is also underway.

Selected Bibliography to Bombay, Mumbai Books + Acts compiled by Dr.Maya Avasia, Priyanka Sane

A bibliography is a systematic list of books, documents and other works such as journal articles. This formulated list range from "works cited" at the end, books and articles to complete, independent publications. Bibliographical works are always considered to be of tertiary nature. To enable researcher to have information on books published so far on Mumbai attempts are being made to compile a comprehensive bibliography on books on the city with those available in the libraries in Mumbai viz. Asiatic Society of Mumbai, Bhau Daji Lad Museum Library etc. A sieve through the collection at the Research and Resource Center is an attempt in the fore mentioned activity. However, this bibliography restricts itself to books with keywords Mumbai, Bombay in their respective titles along with that of acts. This bibliography could be treated as a Working Bibliography and is a compendium of information that a researcher/reader needs to start project on MUMBAI.
